ORDER:

In G.O. No. 3150 P.H. dated the 4th November 1946 the Government ordered that vacancies in the seats reserved for non-officials in the Advisory Committees for Government Medical Institutions both in the city and in the mufassal should be filled by nominating members of the Madras Legislative Assembly or Madras Legislative Council. They have now decided that in all cases where the non-official seats cannot be filled by the nominations of M.L.As and M.L.Cs, rerpesenting the area in question, the vacancies should be filled by nominating public spirited persons representing congress committees and Public Welfare Committees, organisations or bodies.

2. In G.O. No. 245 P.H. dated the 25th January 1947 relating to Advisory Committees for District Headquarters Hospitals and Hospitals at Divisional centres provision has been made for the nomination of one member of the independent medical profession, preferably a lady in one of the seats reserved for non-officials. The Government have now decided that public spirited persons representing Medical Associations should also be nominated on these Advisory Committees, and that failing to get such a member of the Medical Associations a member of the independent medical profession preferably a lady should be nominated. The Surgeon-General is requested to submit suitable amendments to the rules appended to G.O. No. 1598 P.H dated the 26th June 1929, as subsequtnly amended.

3. InG.O. No. 1718 P.H. dated the 16th July 1930 relating to Advisory Committees for Government Hospitals in the Madras City there is provision in Rule 2 for the nomination of 3 lady members. Government have decided that one of the seats intended for ladies should be reserved for public spirited persons representing the Medical Associations or the independent medical profession. The Surgeon-General is requested to submit suitable amendments to the rules appended to G.O. No. 1718 P.H. dated the 16th July 1930.

4. The Government have also decided that members of the Advisory Committees for city as well as the mufassal who have not been regular in attending meetings and those who have not been shown sufficient interest in their work should not be proposed for re-nomination. The Surgeon-General is requested to consider this aspect in submitting nominations for membership of Advisory Committees.
